How to Select Your Master Of Ceremonies/ Disc Jockey for a Successful Wedding Reception

We understand that for most people, choosing a Master of Ceremonies/Disc Jockey is often difficult and confusing, yet the most important decision you will make for your Wedding Reception. Since everyone claims to be “The Best”, how can you really determine who is good, and who is an amateur? For a once-in-a-lifetime event like your Wedding Reception, it is in your best interest to start with a professional Master of Ceremonies/Disc Jockey. Don’t take chances with “a friend of a friend” on the day you have been planning for months. Although people mean well, their lack of experience and/or skill will not prepare them to handle unexpected details.

First, a Wedding Specialist is recommended. A Disc Jockey from a nightclub, school dance, or your local tavern may be great, but they’re not necessarily right for your Wedding.

Second, meet with the Disc Jockey Company you are considering. The decision on your Wedding Entertainment is not a decision that should be made over the telephone. You must be certain that you are comfortable with their style and that the company is a good match for you. After all, they will be representing you at your Wedding Reception.

Third, check the history and background of the Disc Jockey Company. Do they have references? And don’t just take their word for it, call several of their references and find out why the client loved their Disc Jockey.

Never base your decision on price alone. You will get what you pay for. If the price is right, but your Disc Jockey ruins your Wedding Reception due to his lack of preparation, poor performance, or if he doesn’t show up, that’s how you and your guests will remember your event. The risks are too great to base your decision solely on price.

The Master of Ceremonies/Disc Jockey should be considered the “Wedding Entertainment Director”

A common misconception is that the Disc Jockey provides just “the music”. In reality, the Master of Ceremonies/Disc Jockey must perform the following duties:

- Meeting with the Bride, Groom and Family Members
- Creating the Itinerary/Agenda
- Coordinating the flow of your Reception with the Caterer, Photographers, and their vendors
- Organizing the Wedding Party, making all announcements including the introductions and all formalities
- Programming and proper timing of music and requests
- Creating a fun and personalized dance environment
- Performing with interaction at the level you request
- And more!

Understanding the role your Master of Ceremonies/Disc Jockey plays in your Wedding Reception will help you make this very important decision.

What Our Clients Are Saying

“We had an excellent DJ. I would strongly recommend Marlin Disc Jockeys. He played a wide variety of music, including the bride and groom’s pre-selected music and guest requests. He also got involved with the guests and taught them a dance. Everyone that we spoke to following the event said that it was the best wedding they ever attended, and I credit those compliments to Dave. Even the bride from another wedding came over and said that our DJ was much better than hers. We are grateful to Dave for making our wedding one to remember!”

Jennifer and James Detweiler

“Just wanted to tell you that Randy and his partner did a fantastic job at our wedding!! He was exactly what we were looking for, perfect volume, fun interaction and great personality. Thanks for giving us such great service. He was really what made the event fun. My side of the family has never ever danced at an event, and how Randy got that group of polite wet blankets on the floor and having a great time was really outstanding! Many thanks for the great experience.”

Interesting Wedding Facts and Statistics

Disc Jockey rates vary based on talent, experience, emcee ability, service, coordination, equipment needed, music knowledge, mixing ability and personality.

The Disc Jockey you select will be taking on the responsibility of over 80% of the success of your Wedding Reception and often get paid less than 3% of the total budget. Yet, if the Disc Jockey is a poor performer, or worse, doesn't show up, your entire investment is wasted, not just that 3%.

A full-service disc jockey company will normally invest 22 to 30 hours to present your special event, but it may appear that you are paying for "4 hours". Consultations, music purchasing and editing, preparation, set-up and tear down, travel, education and other business related endeavors add up to the overall success of your Wedding Reception.

After the Vows...

- 72% of all Brides say they would have spent more time choosing their Reception entertainment.
- Almost 100% say they would have spent more of their budget on the entertainment.
- During the wedding planning, Brides say their highest priority is their attire, followed by the Reception site and caterer
- Reception entertainment is among the least of their priorities. Within one week after their Reception, 78% of Brides say they would have made the entertainment their highest priority!
- When asked, 81% of guests say the thing they remember most about a Wedding is the entertainment.
- 65% of all couples that chose a band to entertain at their Wedding said, if they had it to do over again, they would have chosen a Disc Jockey.
